

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, April 20, 1917

Beinn Bhreagh, near Baddeck, Nova Scotia . 1917 April 20 Mrs Alexander Graham Bell
1331 Connecticut Avenue Washington D C Dear Mabel:—

Received your note of April 16th, the hurrah tele gram for your sporty husband April 17th and your telegram of April 19th referring to some paper you had been writing that Lane and Carty think the Defence Society will publish.

Please get Gretchen to send me a copy.

I enclose copy of the special contract and power of Attorney I had to sign to get the permission of the Canadian Government Railway to my riding on a freight car from the Grand Narrows to Shenacadie and you will observe that my life is therein valued at twenty five dollars!

The lambs have all be examined and those to be kept for the present have had their ears punched. I we m n t up to the Sheep barns today where the lambs had been shut up for three hours and started them hunting for their mothers. We have been able to identify all of the lambs wanted so t hat our records for the Spring are now complete.

I enclose bill for $96.00 from Brander Morris Co Halifax which I know nothing about and so forward it to you for settlement.

I enclose copy of Laboratory Conference Thursday Apl 19th. AGB Enclosures
